Shepherd's Canyon Retreat ministry

Confidentiality Statement

CONFIDENTIALITY STANDARDS:

All participant information is to be treated as confidential, including the fact that the client receives (or previously received) services through this ministry. The privacy and confidentiality of our participants are protected under the Ethics Code of the mental health professions, state laws and regulations, and federal HIPAA Regulations. No client information may be disclosed without the explicit informed consent of the participant.

Staff and volunteers often have access to information about participants either written or told to them by the participant themselves. Staff and volunteers acknowledge the value and importance of protecting the confidentiality of this information and agree to use his/her best efforts to protect the confidential information. Staff and volunteers hold the confidential information in the strictest confidence and will exercise at least the same care with respect thereto as he/she exercises with respect to his/her own most confidential or proprietary information.

I agree to enter into a confidential relationship with respect to the disclosure of certain proprietary and confidential information ("Confidential Information").

This Agreement is entered into on the ____ day of _____, 20____.

I affirm that I have read and understand the terms of this Agreement.
